

Roanoke Project Rubric

Category	4	3	2	1
Required Elements	Project includes all required elements as well as a few additional elements generated by the student	Project includes all required elements	Project strip is missing a few required elements	Project is missing many required elements
Content/ Accuracy	All facts are accurate. You have consistently supported your theory with primary and secondary source facts	The majority (90%+) of facts are accurate. You have supported most of your theory with facts from primary and secondary source details	Some facts are accurate. You have include 1-2 facts to support your theory	Facts are mostly inaccurate and are not supported by primary and secondary source facts
Organization	All information is clearly organized	Most information is clearly organized	Some information is clearly organized	Organization is confusing to the reader
Clarity and neatness	Your work is exceptionally neat, colorful, neatly written, and thoughtfully created	Your work is easy to read and most elements are neatly written, colorful, and thoughtfully created	Your work can be read for the most part and a few elements are show thought and some color	Your work is hard to read and appears rushed or like very little thought went into work
Revising and Editing	No errors in spelling, capitalization or punctuation	A couple minor errors in spelling, capitalization and punctuation do not interfere with presentation	Multiple errors in spelling, capitalization and punctuation do not interfere with presentation	Many Multiple errors in spelling, capitalization and punctuation do not interfere with presentation
Use of time	Time used wisely And project is in by the due date	Time used wisely most of the time and project is turned in by the due date	Time used wisely some of the time, project may be late	Time wasted and project very late or missing

